

Wanda

8th March 1900.

Dear Sir

I am desirous of arranging if it can be conveniently done for my daughter, aged 16, who is now at school in North Adelaide, to continue her studies in the violin at the Conservatorium -

I find however that the school terms & those of the University are not concurrent & as a consequence she would lose about half a dozen lessons.

will soon commence.
Your early reply will oblige

Yours truly

Wm. Appleton

John Hancock

Edgar Allan Poe

Adelaine

We cannot promise to make up losses incurred by the hospital. We will try to fit in her losses after 4.15 and will make up losses now incurred if she begins at once. Will try to hardly take to see the doctor after 4.15 and Wednesday being her sister and mother.
Haley born common.
on Appleton (?)

in the course of a year owing to her being absent from Town during the school vacations.

Would you please inform me whether you could arrange to make up these lessons & also whether you could give my daughter her lesson at about 1/4 past 4 on some day during the week, so as to fit in with her school work, or what times you could arrange.

Kindly inform me also whether she could start for the full term now, making up for the lost week, & also when the