Cowra Chambers,

8th October 1902

Dear Sir,

I am writing for information as to whether I will be permitted to enter the Examination to take place next month in Commercial Law, in connection with the Advanced Commercial Certificate.

I have not attended any of Prof. Salmond's lectures, for the reason that I have been studying for the examination in law in connection with the Institute of Accountants Examination. I beg to submit that, considering this fact, and also that I have been employed in a solicitors' office for over four years, I have had good opportunities of acquiring a knowledge of the subjects covered by "Commercial Law"

If I am permitted to enter this examination I purpose attending all the subsequent lectures on the subjects of the Advanced Commercial Certificate.

Trusting you will afford me the information desired at your earliest convenience,

I am, Sir,

Yours etc,
