To The Registrar

Dear Sir.

My daughter Maud
Every & Newman will not be able to attend her Pianoforte lessons for some time, owing to illness. I have delayed writing you, trusting she would be well enough to go on this week. but I find it will be several weeks before she would be strong enough; so as

She has not had any lessons from Miss Reinhardt this term; I suppose she will be allowed to recontinue her lessons at the Half Term & pay only the fee for that — (the Half Term)
because of course I do not wish to pay for a term when she will not be able to have lessons for some weeks. Kindly oblige
me with an early reply
Yours truly
T. J. Newman
